THE Proprietor of a large Body of land in the West, and in a very healthy region of country, wishing to settle it, would give one or more persons, of respectable character, skilled in farming, and particularly in grazing all kinds of Cattle and Sheep, very advantageous terms to act as agents, and partners in a joint Grazing, and perhaps Milling concern, for which the property is peculiarly adapted, affording a rich and extensive range, a good market, available Water Power, and an abundance of Stone Coal. None but those who can produce undeniable testimonials to their character and qualifications need apply; but it is believed that any person, qualified as above, and making early application, in person, if practicable, at the office of the Pittsburgh Gazette, will have it in his power to enter upon a business of certain and great profit to the enterprising.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer is vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the costiveness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from exposure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞ A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

WRITING ACADEMY.

HAVING received a liberal patronage from many of the distinguished and enlightened citizens of Pittsburgh, Mr. Halsey respectfully informs his patrons and the public, that he has removed his Writing Academy to Second street, between Wood and Market, a few doors from the Post Office, where he will give instruction for a limited time.

Being well aware of the truth of the old maxim, that practice makes perfect—or in other words, that when the true and most beautiful form of the letters be fixed on the memory, and such command of hand be acquired as to enable the learner to execute, with perfect ease and equal facility, any character or letter he pleases, he can write with elegance, despatch, and beauty. The mechanical movements, directed by judgment, become, by practice, habitual—taste gives the hand writing, in some measure, its peculiar character, and practice confirms it. This can be acquired to an eminent degree and in a short time by practice under the instruction of him only who is master of the art. The absurd jargon of pretended professors of angular and anti-angular systems, have so repeatedly imposed upon the public as to render the art disgusting, and its acquirement despaired of. The new method of instruction used by Mr. Halsey, who has made it his profession and sole study, is interesting to the learner, improves the taste, and renders its acquirement delightful and sure.

The running hand imparted by him to Ladies is neat, rapid, fashionable, elegant and lady-like—to Gentlemen, a style at once bold, free and expeditious, applicable to the various branches of business.

The large and German text hands and all the other ornamental styles are also taught. For further information, he respectfully invites the attention of the ladies and gentlemen, desiring this acquirement, to his establishment, where specimens of improvement made in this city can be seen. Immediate application is indispensably necessary.

☞ He respectfully informs the Ladies, that the Ladies' Class has just commenced.

SECT. 3. Be it further ordained and enacted, That in all cases of infraction of the second section of this Ordinance, the Street Commissioner is hereby authorized to repair the injury or damage, or close up the streets as the case may be, at the expense of the city—and if the aforesaid Company shall refuse to pay the amount claimed by the Street Commissioner for repairing said injury or damage, that the case at issue, and all other cases where differences may occur, shall be settled by arbitrators, mutually chosen.

SECT. 4. Be it further ordained and enacted, That in consideration of said privileges hereby granted to said company, the said company shall, as soon as lamp posts and lamp frames are erected, and Gas is prepared, supply the lamps with Gas at a rate not exceeding the sum usually paid in the Atlantic cities for similar Gas Lights per annum, for each lamp, for as many lamps as the city shall require, within the range of Gas Pipes; the lamps to be lighted up half an hour after sunset; one half of the lights to be extinguished at eleven o'clock, the other half to be kept burning until within an hour of sunrise; the Company to be at the expense of lighting the lamps; the lamp posts, frames, and all fixtures necessary for introducing the Gas from the main pipes, to be at the expense of Corporation.

SECT. 5. Be it further ordained and enacted, That the aforesaid Company shall have at least three thousand feet of pipe laid down on the fourth of July, 1834; and from that time they shall lay down, annually, not less than two thousand feet of pipe, until the city is lighted to the extent that may be desired; and such pipes to be laid at such places as may be designated by the Councils of the city: always provided that said Company shall not discharge from their works the refuse water, or other offensive matter, into the Allegheny river, above the water works of said city.

SECT. 6. Be it further ordained and enacted, That an exclusive privilege of opening the streets, lanes, and alleys, and supplying the city with Gas for twenty-one years, from the fourth day of July, 1834, is hereby granted to said company: and at the end of twenty-one years, the said city is to have the power of taking the whole Gas establishment, upon paying to the said Company the amount that said establishment has cost said Company, deducting therefrom a reasonable allowance for wear, tear, and deterioration: but if the city shall, at the expiration of the above mentioned term of years, not avail itself of said privilege, the said Company is to have an extension of their privileges for three years longer, with all immunities, privileges, and restrictions granted in the sections of this Ordinance, and so on at the end of every successive three years.

SECT. 7. Be it further ordained and enacted, That nothing contained in this Ordinance shall be so construed, to debar said company, or any individual, or the City of Pittsburgh, when injured, from seeking redress for any damage or injury sustained, by ordinary course of law; and it is mutually, and expressly understood, that the city shall not be held liable in any way for injuries done by individuals, or by collections of persons to the property of the Company, nor will the company be held answerable for similar injuries done to the property of the city.

Edgeworth Ladies' Boarding School,
BRADDOCKSFIED, NEAR PITTSBURGH,
Will recommence its engagements on the first Monday of October next.

THE increased and increasing approbation given to this institution cannot fail to produce a corresponding zeal and energy, and a desire to secure a settled good opinion. At this time very many additions have been made, for the convenience, comfort, and well doing of the pupils.—In so large a field as is open for education, understood in its true and extensive sense, there must be room for continual culture. Unabated will be the effort to do the utmost possible to meet so responsible a charge as the care of youth, and to this effort will be added the aid experience brings.—With little observation, in every succeeding month, somewhat is seen to revise and improve.

Edgeworth Seminary has been now of several years standing, and, disclaiming all egotism, it is only the fact to say that experience enables it to offer rather an increase than a diminution of means to give satisfaction.

The health enjoyed by the inmates, and beauty of situation of Braddocksfield Mansion, are well known to visiters, but for information of strangers, it is necessary to state, that in both particulars terms too flattering cannot easily be used.

To instruct, coercive means are not employed—reference is made to the heart as well as the head. Pains are taken to inculcate, that to be great, it is an indispensable to be virtuous; and as the worth of knowledge is only to be estimated by its tendency to right action, the study of every branch, and the proportion of time given to it, will be made subservient and tributary to useful moral and religious improvement.

Sabbath day engagements must not be interrupted unnecessarily. Pupils living at a distance, or from any cause, disposed to make Braddocksfield, during the vacation, their home, are invited to do so, and no additional charge is made.

TERMS.

Admission, Tuition in English branches, viz:—Reading, Writing, Grammar, Composition, Arithmetic, Geography, and Astronomy, with use of Globes, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, and History; also Plain and Ornamental Needle Work, - - - per annum, $130
Tuition in Music, - - - - 40

COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT,

A SAFE and Valuable Medicine for Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Consumption, and Liver Complaints.

Most of the medicines made use of for the above diseases are of a stimulating nature, composed generally of Resins and Balsams, in alcoholic solutions, which, although sometimes giving temporary relief, in almost every instance where they are freely used, aggravate the disease, and reduce the strength of the patient.

This article possesses superior advantages over these preparations, its action being of a tonic, invigorating and strengthening nature, thus overcoming the disease by promoting expectoration, and gradually increasing the strength of the patient, and thus, without being attended with any unpleasant effects: it also agrees with the stomach, in all cases, and is a pleasant medicine to take.

PATENT PLANING MACHINE.—The right to use this valuable machine, invented and patented by William Woodworth, and known as Woodworth's Patent Planing Machine, may be obtained on application to the subscriber for the counties of Allegheny, Butler, Beaver, Washington, Green, Fayette, Somerset, Cambria, Indiana, Jefferson, Clearfield, M'Kean, Warren, Venango, Mercer, Crawford, and Erie, in the State of Pennsylvania. That part of Maryland lying west of the Blue Ridge; all that part of Virginia lying west of the Blue Ridge, except the county of Ohio. The whole of the state of Ohio except the counties of Hamilton, Butler, and Montgomery. The whole of the state of Kentucky, except the counties of Jefferson, Boone, Oldham, Gallatin, and Campbell. The whole of Indiana, except the counties of Floyd, Clark, Jefferson, Dearborn, and Switzerland. The whole of the state of Illinois, and the territory of Michigan. Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.

It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and arthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE.

From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.
UTICA, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's very truly, D. C. LANSING.
